BYLAWS OF THE DALTON STATE COLLEGE FACULTY SENATE

- have received notice of the recommendation and have not requested a meeting to discuss it.
- b. Should the president of the college veto a Senate recommendation, he/she shall, within the 20 days specified above, provide to the president of the Senate a written explanation of the reasons for his/her veto.
3. In the event of a veto, the Faculty Senate may respond by
    - a. accepting the veto
    - b. sending to the president of the College a compromise recommendation
    - c. rejecting the president's veto for the record with a two-thirds vote of senators present
  4. The president of the College will respond to a Senate compromise recommendation as specified above for any Senate recommendation.

ARTICLE IX Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order: Newly Revised shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws and any special rules of order the Senate may adopt.

ARTICLE X Amendment of Faculty Senate Bylaws

The Faculty may amend the Bylaws at a regularly scheduled Faculty Meeting by a two-thirds majority vote of the members present. A proposed amendment must be recommended by at least 10 members of the faculty and submitted to the Faculty Senate at a regular Senate meeting. The proposed amendment shall be voted on by the Faculty Senate at its next regular meeting and submitted in writing with the recommendations of the Faculty Senate to the faculty at least 10 days prior to the next Faculty Meeting at which action on the amendment could be taken.

An amendment shall become effective when approved by the president of the College. The president of the College shall communicate the amendment to the Chancellor.
