

Quill

A monthly publication for the faculty and staff of Dalton State College March 2001

Breaking new ground... Dr. Allene Magill to Speak at Library Ceremony

Dr. Allene Magill, Superintendent of Dalton Public Schools and the newest member of Board of Regents, will be the featured speaker at the ground breaking ceremony for the Roberts Library on Thursday, March 22.

A number of local and state dignitaries have been invited to attend the event which will begin outside the library at 11:30 a.m. and will end with a reception in the Cherokee Room. The event celebrates the much anticipated addition which will almost double the size of Roberts Library.

“The campus and Library staff are thrilled to see the Roberts Library expansion taking shape,” said Ms. Elizabeth Bagley, Library Director. “Students, faculty, and community patrons will be well-served for decades by a more efficient, inviting, technology-enabled, and spacious facility.”

Time is running out for... Last of the Red Hot Lovers

Tickets are still available (but won't last long) for this year's dinner theater, Last of the Red Hot Lovers, which will be presented on Monday, March 19, at 6:30 p.m.

The production, a comedy by Neil Simon, will be performed in Pope Student Center by the Repertory Theater of America.

Tickets are $5.00 for students, $7.00 for faculty and staff, and $8.00 for the general public. Contact the Student Activities Office at 2505 or 4428 for reservations.

DSC presents... An Evening with The Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra

The College will host An Evening with The Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra on Thursday, March 22, at 7:30 p.m. at the Northwest Georgia Trade and Convention Center. Reservations are not required but seating is limited. A reception will follow the concert.

Co-sponsored by the College's Alumni Association and Student Activities, the concert will feature works by Bach and Mozart and will showcase the flute, clarinet, oboe, violin, horn, and bassoon.

“Last year the CSO performed on campus and did a wonderful job,” said Amanda Burt, Director of Institutional Advancement and Alumni Affairs. “The Alumni Association overwhelmingly voted to have them back. This should be a great concert, and best of all, it's free and open to the public.”

Quill

Please submit information for the Quill by the 20th of each month for inclusion in the subsequent issue. Send e-mail to jtaylor or lmassey. Or call the Public Relations Office at extension 4469 or 4587.

DSC
DALTON STATE COLLEGE

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

TOM SOMMER	1
JIM HEAD	4
CELESTE HUMPHREY ANN TAYLOR LARAINTEASLEY	8
JOE JACKSON	11
RANDALL GRIFFUS	14
SUSAN WEST	17
REED KRAUSE MARGARET SMITH	22
KEVIN DOHENY	26

CAMPUS WATCH

Dr. Jack Waskey, Associate Professor of Social Science, contributed articles on "Aristocracy," "Censorship," "City State," "Metaphysics," "Missionaries," "Protestantism," "Skepticism," and "Septuagint" for the Encyclopedia of Greece and the Hellenic Tradition which was published in December 2000. The two volume (1900 page) work was published by Fitzroy Dearborn Publishers of London. Information about the publication is available at www.pfitzroydearborn.com/.

On February 9, Dr. Frank Beesley, Assistant Professor of English, presented a program entitled "Success in the Multicultural Classroom" for the 3rd Annual Student Success in First-Year Composition Conference at Georgia Southern University in Statesboro. Dr. Beesley's presentation focused on using cultural variety in the classroom to help students overcome their reluctance to acknowledge cultural differences and to use such differences to enhance learning.

Dr. Angela Harris, Assistant Director of Admissions, and Ms. Edith King, Assistant Registrar, attended the 54th Annual meeting of the Southern Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (SACRAO) in Oklahoma City, February 11-14. Dr. Harris served as a presenter at the meeting which was attended by representatives from 13 states. Dr. Harris's program was entitled "Women in Leadership."

Dr. Christy Price, Assistant Professor of Psychology, and Dr. Mary Nielsen, Associate Professor of English and Reading, presented at the 8th Annual Georgia Conference on College and University Teaching, a system-wide conference, held at Kennesaw State University, February 8-9. Ms. Nielsen's presentation was entitled "Using Musical Examples in College Reading Classes," and Dr. Price's presentation was entitled "You Had Me at Hello: Igniting Student Interest and Desire to Learn."

CALENDAR

Monday

March 19

Dinner Theater:

Last of the Red Hot Lovers

6:30 p.m. – Pope Student Center
(Contact Student Services for tickets)

Wednesday and Thursday

March 21 and 22

Graduation representative available at the Bookstore

Thursday

March 22

Library addition groundbreaking ceremony
11:30 a.m.

Reception to follow
in the Cherokee Room

Thursday

March 22

Chattanooga Symphony
7:30 p.m.

Northwest Georgia Trade
& Convention Center
No admission fee – seating is limited

TRANSITIONS

Welcome to:

Kay Freeland

Interim Financial Aid Director

Glenda Hobbs

Financial Aid Counselor

Gene Welch

Plant Operations